CÉDRIC ABT

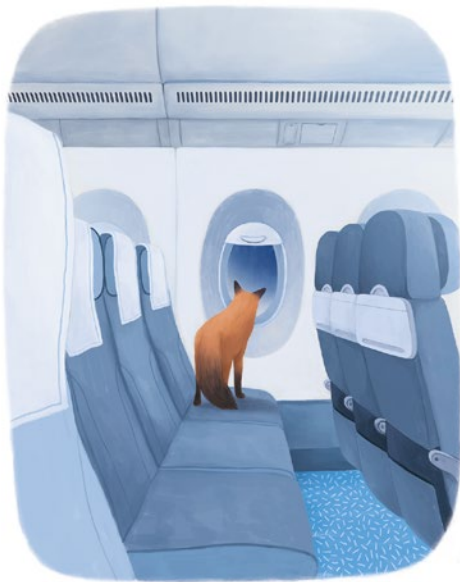

THE LITTLE FOX

A very poetic encounter between a wild animal and the world of aviation. Inspired by the true story of Fox-Trot, the little fox of Orly.

For a while now, at nightfall, a little fox ventures toward the runway. He seems to be waiting for someone. One evening, a man carefully approaches and asks, “What are you doing here?” There on the landing strip, in the midst of the never-ending dance of airplanes, a mechanic and a fox meet and become friends.

— Je m'appelle Rose, poursuit la vieille dame.
— Et moi, Célestine, répond la chauve-souris.
— Si nous sortions toutes les deux ? propose Rose.
— Sortir ? Pourquoi ?
— Pour faire connaissance avec la nuit, suggère Rose, et te rassurer. Ne t'inquiète pas, je serai près de toi.

Célestine volette à travers la maison.
— Mais, on est bien ici ! Et puis maintenant on se connaît ! Ça m'est égal d'avoir peur de la nuit...
— La nuit peut être si belle, insiste Rose.
Laisse-moi te la présenter.
Rose enroule son grand châle autour de ses épaules.
— Mais tu n'as pas envie de dormir ? argumente Célestine.
— Oh, dormir... j'ai tout le temps pour dormir, soupire Rose.
